VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE.

AN ACT
TO SUPPRESS DUELLING.

[Passed by the legislature of Virginis, Jan. 26, 1810.]

Whereas experience has evinced, that the existing remedy for the suppression of the barbarous custom of duelling, is inadequate to the purpose, and the progress and consequences of the evil have become so destructive as to require an effort on the part of the legislature to arrest a vice the result of ignorance and barbarism, justified neither by the precepts of morality nor by the dictates of reason—For remedy whereof,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly, That any person who shall hereafter wilfully and maliciously, or by previous agreement, fight a duel or single combat with any engine, instrument, or weapon, the probable consequence of which might be the death of either person, and in so doing shall kill his antagonist, or any other person or persons, or inflict such a wound as that the person injured shall die thereof within three months thereafter, such offender, his aiders, abettors and counsellors being thereof duly convicted, shall be guilty of murder, and suffer death by being hanged by the neck; any law, custom or usage of this commonwealth to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further enacted, That if any person whatsoever, shall challenge another to fight a duel with any weapon or in any manner whatsoever, the probable issue of which may or might result in the death of the challenger or challenged, or if any person shall accept a challenge or fight a duel with any weapon, or in any way whatsoever, the probable issue of which may or might terminate in the death of the challenger, or challenged, such person shall be incapable of holding or being elected to any post of profit, trust, or emolument civil or military, under the government of this commonwealth.

And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this act, every person who shall be appointed to any office or place civil or military, under the commonwealth, shall, in addition to the oath now prescribed by law take the following oath: "I do solemnly swear, or affirm, (as the case may be) that I have not been engaged in a duel, by sending or accepting a challenge to fight a duel, or by fighting a duel, or in any other manner in violation of the act entitled an act to suppress duelling, (since the passage of that act) nor will I be so concerned directly or indirectly in such duel, during my continuance in office, So help me God."

And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the judges of the circuit courts and the county courts, at their quarterly sessions, to give in charge expressly to the jury, all the laws in force to suppress duelling.—Also to charge the jury, to present all persons concerned in carrying, sending, or accepting a challenge; and if any person shall be presented in such courts, the said courts shall, if they have jurisdiction of said offences, proceed to the trial of the same in the ordinary way, and if not, that the presentment shall be either certified by order of the court, to such court as has jurisdiction, or shall be considered in law a sufficient authority for a magistrate to issue his warrant against the accused, where an examining court is necessary.

And be it further enacted, That when any judge or magistrate of this commonwealth, has good cause to suspect any person or persons are about to be engaged in a duel, he may issue his warrant to bring the parties before him; and if he shall think proper to take of them a recognizance to keep the peace, he shall insert in the condition, that the party or parties shall not during the time for which they were bound directly or indirectly be concerned in a duel, either with the person suspected or any other person, within the time limited by the recognizance.

And be it further enacted, That if any person or persons shall, for the purpose of eluding the operation of the provisions of this law, leave the state, the person or persons so offending, shall be deemed as guilty and be subject to the like penalties as if the offence had been committed within this commonwealth. If any person shall leave this state with the intention of giving or receiving a challenge to fight a duel, or of aiding or abetting, in giving or receiving such challenge, and a duel shall actually be fought, whereby the death of any person shall happen, and the person so leaving the state shall remain thereout, so as to prevent his apprehension for the purpose of trial; or if any person shall fight a duel in this state, or aid or abet therein, whereby any person shall be killed, and then flee into another state to avoid his trial, in either case it shall be the duty of the executive, and they are hereby directed to adopt and pursue all legal steps to cause any such offender to be apprehended and brought to trial, in the county where the offence was committed, when the duel shall have been fought within the state—and when it shall have been fought without the state, then in that county where, in the opinion of the executive, the evidence against the offender can be best obtained and produced upon his trial.

Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the attornies of the commonwealth for the county courts to give information to the executive, whenever a case shall arise in their counties respectively, which will render the interposition of the executive authority under this act, necessary. And the said attornies, either at the first quarterly court of their respective counties after the commencement of this act or at the time of their acceptance of their offices, where they shall hereafter be appointed, shall take the following oaths —I do solemnly swear, or affirm, (as the case may be) that I will, to the best of my judgment, execute the duty imposed on me by the act for suppressing duelling—So help me God.

And be it further enacted, That all words, which from their usual construction and common acceptation, are considered as insults, and lead to violence and breach of the peace, shall hereafter be actionable, and no plea, exception or demurrer shall be sustained in any court within this commonwealth, to preclude a jury from passing thereon, who are hereby declared to be the sole judges of the damages sustained.—Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to deprive the several courts of this commonwealth from granting new trials as heretofore.

This act shall be in force from the first day of April next.

EXECUTION LAW.

An act to continue in force for a limited time, an act passed on the thirty-first day of January last, entitled "an act concerning executions, and for other purposes.

[Passed February 1st, 1810.

BE it enacted by the general assembly, That the act passed the thirty-first day of January last, entitled "an act concerning executions, and for other purposes," be and the same is hereby declared to be and remain in force until the thirty-first day of May and no longer: Provided always, and be it further enacted, that nothing herein contained shall operate, to take away or impair any security given or right vested, under the above recited act, but that all of them be, and they are hereby maintained and enforced; and that each and every remedy provided by the said act for the prosecution of such rights and securities shall be and they are hereby rendered perpetual.

An be it further enacted, That in all cases where under the sixth section of the above recited act, bond shall have been given to stay proceedings upon any deed of trust, such bond shall be, by the trustee, obligee or assignee, his or her executors, or administrators in whose possession such bond shall have been given to stay proceedings upon any deed of trust, such bond shall be, by the trustee, obligee or assignee, his or her executors, or administrators in whose possession such bond may be, returned to the clerk's office of the superior or inferior court of that county in which the deed of trust was executed or recorded, and the clerk of that court only shall have power to issue execution upon such bonds.

This act shall commence and be in force from and after the passing thereof.

SALEM, January 28.

We ought to be convinced that the navy of Great Britain is an engine of injustice, tyranny and cruelty towards this country, and the only obstacle to that perfect "freedom of the seas" which it is the unceasing effort of Bonaparte to establish—not only because it is continually denounced in our papers as such, but more especially as we find our national legislators solemnly engaged in making a law to forbid, for its crimes, any of the ships of that navy from enjoying the hospitality of our ports and harbors.—We have frequently made considerable progress in bringing ourselves to this opinion, when we have been arrested by accounts of British ships of war receiving our vessels under their convoy for protection—of their wresting them from French privateers, which had taken them as a bon prize, and restoring them to their owners—and of their bestowing comforts and courtesies upon them in every sea. Such things sometimes staggar our belief, and make us almost question the infallibility even of Congress itself. Among other instances of the nature we have mentioned, calculated to produce this sceptical effect upon our minds, is the following, received by the Freedom, capt. Ford, recently from the Indian seas. It seems that the American brig Apollo, in distress for water, had been for many days unsuccessfully endeavoring to beat up to the island of St. Helena, when she was observed by his Britannic Majesty's ship Lion, then in port, which went out after her and towed her in. We don't know whether this may not be considered as an abridgement of the freedom of the seas, and deserve the punishment of excommunication from our ports; but however that may be, it made a different impression on the American captain, who expressed his gratitude in the following letter.

To Captain Heathcote of his Britannic majesty's ship Lion.

St. Helena Roads, Sept. 28, 1809.

SIR,

Be pleased to accept my grateful thanks for your very kind assistance in going with his majesty's ship Lion, after the American brig Apollo, under my command, and your humanely towing her into this harbor.

Had you not thus had the goodness feelingly to consider the situation that I then stood in, the condition of the Apollo, myself and the crew must have been perilous in the extreme; this you will be pleased to allow, when I declare to you, sir, that I had not above twenty gallons of water on board at the time I anchored in these roads, and the utter impossibility of gaining it, left no other alternative than by bearing away for some port of South America, with such a slender stock of water for eight people.

I have the honor to subscribe myself your ever grateful, humble and obedient servant,

(Signed) WM. BRAGG,
Master American brig Apollo.

Copy of Captain Heathcote's Answer.

H.B.M. ship Lion, St. Helena Roads, September 29.

SIR,

In reply to your letter of yesterday's date (which I have just received) I cannot refrain from first indulging in the personal gratification of assuring you how happy it makes me to consider myself the medium of benefaction to one so sensible of obligation as you certainly are.

Being well aware of your distressful predicament (knowing the scarcity of water on board, and the nature of your cargo) when I saw the Apollo after two days hard beating, so far to the leeward of the island as to preclude all hope of her regaining, without assistance, the anchorage here, which she had very nearly reached previously, your disappointment and danger could not fail of making me rejoice that no exigency of his Britannic majesty's service prevented my doing what, under the existing circumstances, would, I am sure, have been the will of my sovereign master, whose ship has as you so fully describe, been employed in the cause of humanity, and serviceable to subjects of America.

It is a great blessing to possess ample means of performing acts of kindness; but as no particular acts of mine have been exhibited in the present instance, however much I am gratified by your very handsome acknowledgment, I cannot flatter myself with the idea of deserving so much individual praise. I am much indebted to the prudence and persevering activity of the officers and men on whom the result of my endeavors more immediately depended, than on any orders I could issue; and I sincerely congratulate you on his majesty's ship having performed this duty so successively, under the very favorable circumstances which attended the attempt, as to affect the complete accomplishment of your wishes.

I am, sir, Your very obedient
Humble servant,
(Signed) H. J. HEATHCOTE,
Captain of H. B. M. ship Lyon.

To Mr. William Brag, master
Am. Brig Apollo.

NORFOLK, January 31.

Arrived this morning from Cadiz, the schooner Ann Ballard, Captain Longdon. This vessel left the port of Cadiz on the 22d of December, but Capt. L. was not on shore for ten days before he sailed, and brings papers only to the 12th December, with which Captain L. has favored us.—They contain nothing of importance, except addresses from the government to the people on the present state of affairs, which are too long for translation and insertion in this day's Ledger.

Captain Langdon says, that it was reported that the French were within the 20 20 leagues of Seville, and that the British army would immediately evacuate Spain.

POSTCRIPT.

Our paper was just ready for press, when the ship Betsey, capt. Watson, arrived in 40 days from Lisbon; by capt. Watson we were politely favored with files of Lisbon papers to the 19th of Dec. from which we have not time to procure translations for this paper. We understand that nothing important had occurred; accounts from the British army at Badajoz are published to the 12th of Dec. but we do not know what they state.

From a paper of the 16th of December we procured a translation of the following article:

LISBON, Dec. 16.

The day before yesterday the British packet arrived here, bringing London intelligence to the 29th of Nov. The articles of the most interest are as follows:

Official intelligence has been received of the destruction of a French squadron, which has been communicated by lord Mulgrave to the lord mayor in the following letter.

Admiralty Office, 29th November, 1809.

My Lord,

I have the high satisfaction to inform your Lordship, that despatches have been received from Lord Collingwood, dated the 30th of last, and 1st of the present month, which announce that a French convoy, which sailed from Toulon on the 21st of October, destined for Barcelona, composed of 3 ships of the line, 2 frigates of the largest class, and 2 smaller, with 20 armed Transports, laden with stores and ammunition, had all been destroyed, with the exception of the smaller frigates. The ships of war were destroyed on the coast, and the armed transports by the boats of the squadron, under the command of lieut. Taylor, in the Bay of Rosas, on the 1st inst. I am sorry to say that in this successful and intrepid enterprize, that 15 of our men were killed and 55 wounded. I have honor to be, &c.

MULGRAVE.

To the right honorable the Lord Mayor.

The London paper of the 29th November says, that Bonaparte had announced to the kings of Saxony and Westphalia, then at Paris, that he has determined to assume the title of Emperor of Germany.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY on Friday the 12th inst. a Negro Man slave named BILL—he calls himself Bill Payne, belonging to the subscriber, living in Charles county, state of Maryland. The said slave is a house servant, waits and drives a carriage very well; he is 23 years of age, 5 feet 9 inches high, small face, handsome lively eyes, is very fond of strong liquor, plays on the fiddle—had on and took with him one suit of blue nankeens, a dark cloth coat and overalls, two jackets of Bennett's cord, two India cotton shirts, one with ruffles one pair of good boots, one hat half worn, and sundry other wearing apparel, not sufficiently known to be well described. The said slave took a fiddle with him, and it is expected that he intends to go to Frederick Town (Maryland). The above reward will be paid for securing the said slave in any public jail, and reasonable charges if brought to me in Charles county.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 6.

☞ The Vestry of the Episcopal Church in Alexandria, beg leave to inform the congregation, that they have engaged a Clergyman, who, from the highly respectable source from which he has been recommended, they have reason to believe, will prove an extremely faithful and successful minister, and be the cause of mutual felicitation. He will commence his parochial duties on Sunday next, the 11th instant.

Important to Merchants.—We are authorised to inform the merchants of the U. States, and others trading to the Spanish colonies, that by recent orders issued by the supreme government of Spain, no vessel whatever having any passenger on board not furnished with a passport from the Spanish agents in the United States will be admitted to an entry in any port of Spanish America. Every vessel acting in contravention to this declaration is liable to confiscation together with the cargo, and every passenger without a passport will be immediately confined and dealt with as the law prescribes.

[Freeman's Journal.]

AN HONEST DEMOCRAT.

One instant stay, and hear an alter'd man.
HOME's Douglas.

Mr. M'KEE, of Kentucky, who has been considered as one of the most violent class of democrats, had the manliness in his speech upon Mr. Macon's bill, to acknowledge what no man of his party has ever before ventured to concede. He said that his constituents were ripe for war—that in no way could he more promote his own popularity than by delivering an ardent war speech—but he should be governed by his own views of the true interest of his country. He believed that no instance existed in history—that the thing was not in human nature—for two nations to be at war with a third without forming a close connexion with each other. IF WE GO TO WAR WITH ENGLAND, said he, WE RUSH INTO THE EMBRACE OF NAPOLEON! Those who believe that man to have principle—those who believe that the fate of Spain would not be ours, if we were in his power, must have more faith than I claim. The scene of Bayonne ought to convince the most incredulous that what he deems his interest is his only rule of right.

(Ibid.)

"Home Manufactures."—Chancellor Livingston, in a letter to Mr. Custis, dilating upon the advantages which are expected to be derived from the introduction of the Merino breed of sheep into the United States, enumerates a number of facts which have occurred within his knowledge, which strongly indicate the progress of home manufactures. He states,

1st. That the number of sheep in the state of New-York have nearly doubled in four years.

2d. That there are as many carding machines as grist mills in the state.

3d. A fuller told him that he had 600 pieces of cloth in his mill, and yet in the circle of four miles round him, there were five other fulling mills as fully employed.

4th. That the town of Clermont, where the Chancellor's estate is situate, which contains about eighty farms, has fifty looms, and almost every family has a woman weaver.

5th. No price is considered too high for fine sheep—he has one for which he was offered 1200 dollars, and he refused the offer.

(Virginia Patriot.

Gov. Gore delivered his speech to the Massachusetts legislature on the 24th ult. The speech chiefly relates to the local politics of the state. The following is the only paragraph of a general nature: "At the last session, we had the happiness of mutual congratulation on the prospect of an amicable adjustment of our national differences with one of the great belligerents of Europe, and of the revival of commerce so essential to the prosperity of this commonwealth. Subsequent events shew our relations to the powers at war to be in a most critical and alarming state.

"Atho' our commercial and foreign concerns are confined to the government of the union, yet so deeply involved are we, in every thing which regards them, that the exercise of all constitutional means either to prevent the calamities that threaten us, or to prepare to meet them, in a becoming manner, is a duty too imperative to be neglected. Having done all in our power, to these ends, we may humbly rely on that Divine Providence, which has so singularly interposed to relieve our country from impending danger, to all human eyes, inevitable and overwhelming. It would be superfluous in me again to recommend candour and prudence in discussion, always necessary to a wise and happy result. Every one must see that in the present portentous crisis of our affairs, these qualities, with a disinterested elevation above all party spirit, are indispensable to the safety of our dearest rights and best interests."

We have seen a letter from the Mississippi Territory, dated the 23d Dec. which mentions that gen. Wilkinson will return to the Atlantic states in the course of this month. Col. Freeman had written to him from Natchitoches, stating that the Spaniards had appeared rather uneasy, and requesting a reinforcement of troops. Mr. Jefferson's "new levies" have suffered beyond the power of language to express.—The letter states their number to have been on their arrival at New Orleans, about 2 500. They lost there and at Terre a Boeuf about 1000. Of the remaining fifteen hundred only 200 were fit for duty.—Such is the grave we have purchased in Louisiana for our citizens.

(Balt. Fed. Rep.)

The Hero of Gerona.—Few readers have attended to even the name of the illustrious captain who has so long and so gloriously commanded the defence of Gerona. It is Don Mariano Alvarez. A letter from Valencia, published in the Spanish papers, says—"All eyes are fixed on that immortal man, who, with a feeble garrison, which never exceeded 2500 men, has effected such prodigies, and given a new aspect to the cause of liberty. The name alone of the illustrious hero Alvarez, will, in all future times do honor both to Gerona, and the whole Spanish nation."

[Freeman's Journal.]

Dona Susana Claretona—It appears by the Government Gazette of Seville, that among the Spanish heroines who have so much contributed to the defence of the country and the honor of their sex, Dona Susana Claretona, wife of D. Francisco Selonch, merits a distinguished place. She has served with her husband in the Somatenes, from the commencement of the war; acquired the rank of sub lieutenant of infantry; has been in many actions; has killed several of the enemy; has been wounded; and has lately received the appointment of commandant of Somatenes, in conjunction with her husband.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, February 5.

[Taken for the Alexandria Gazette.]

A communication from the commissioners of the sinking fund was received, and ordered to be printed.

Sundry private petitions and reports [illegible] Mr. [illegible] from the committee of claims, [illegible] Peter Landais, made a very long report, which was referred to a committee of the whole house.

Mr. Mosely called for his resolution laid on the table some days since, calling for information respecting the communications of our government to France. The question on consideration was taken by ayes & noes, and carried—Ayes 71—Noes 39.

Mr. Mosely spoke in favor of his resolution.

Mr. Troup said a few words against it.

Mr. Mumford offered an amendment to call on the president for information respecting papers forged, and purporting to be papers of American vessels.

This motion caused considerable debate.

Mr. Mosely could not consent to the amendment; as he considered it quite a different subject, and no way connected with the original resolution.

Mr. Key was in favor of both calls, but he could not consent to join them in one resolution, as he thought they had not the least connection.

Mr. Dana thought the resolution as amended would have about as much connection as the man's conversation, who said, "speaking of boots," how does your grandfather do?"

Mr. Quincy thought the subject not only entirely unconnected, but he thought the resolution as amended, would be a sinking in language that would make the proceeding ridiculous. It was like the title made use of by a low author, who undertook to write on a subject he knew nothing about. He called his work "The history of the creation of the world and especially how buttons are made at Birmingham."

Mr. Ross thought the subjects were connected.

Several other gentlemen spoke on the subject. When the question on the amendment was taken by ayes and noes, and carried, ayes 89, noes 26.

The question was then taken on the resolution and carried ayes 93, noes 19. A committee was appointed to weight upon the president with the resolution.

The appropriation bill was taken up, read a third time and passed.

The house went into committee of the whole on the bill providing for taking the third census of the United States, Mr. MILNOR in the chair.

DIED at Washington on Friday last, ABRAHAM WALKER, late a teacher of youth in this town.

GLENCARN;

THE DISAPPOINTMENTS OF YOUTH,
A NOVEL.

BY GEORGE WALTERSTON, ESQ.
OF WASHINGTON CITY.
Author of the Lawyer and Child of Feeling.

The celebrity of this author's "LAWYER," and "CHILD OF FEELING" induced the publishers to engage in this work, and without detracting from the merits of the former feel themselves justified in stating that his GLENCARN is superior to either. It is submitted without further recommendation, with a wish, that the American reviewers may give further encouragement to this young gentleman's endeavors to entertain instruct and moralize his fellow citizens, in a way seemingly well calculated to attract their attention.

TO THE PUBLIC

Who are affected with Coughs, Colds, Asthmas, and Consumptions.

THERE is perhaps no medical observation better established, none more generally confirmed by the experience of the best physicians of all ages and countries, and none of more importance to the practitioner than the fact that many of the most difficult and incurable complaints originate in neglected COLDS. In a climate as variable as ours, where the changes of the weather are frequently sudden and unexpected, it requires more care and attention to guard against this subtle and dangerous enemy of life, than most people imagine, or are willing to bestow.—Hence the vast number of patients afflicted with coughs, catarrhs, asthmas and consumptions. The many cases of the kind which fell under my observation, the disappointment I experienced in practice, from remedies highly recommended, and my own pre-disposition to pulmonic complaints, were strong inducements for me to consider whether a compound, consisting of mild vegetable substances could not be invented, more free from the well founded objections of practitioners, and better calculated to avert the threatening destruction of the lungs.

I have the satisfaction to offer to the public such a remedy, under the name of the VEGETABLE PULMONIC DETERGENT, well adapted to various constitutions and habits, and to declare with the fullest confidence that I found this composition far superior to others intended to answer the same purpose. I am perfectly satisfied, that practitioners, who have frequently to combat the effects of suppressed perspiration and do not neglect the use of the lancet and other evacuations, whenever they are indicated, will place this medicine on the list of their most favorite remedies; as it can in no case do harm. I will abide by this motto:

NO RELIEF NO PAY.

This motto may be deemed ostentatious by some, and amounting to a positiveness that the medicine will invariably effect a cure in any stage of a disease like a miracle; the proprietor is far from believing that this medicine will render mankind immortal; but he is fully sensible if taken seasonably, and according to the directions, it will either prevent or cure, and if unseasonably, it will most sensibly alleviate distress and prolong life; and having no desire to profit by the confidence of the sick and afflicted, induces me to make the above overture. Should the contrary appear in any instance, as in some it possibly may, the money for the medicine will be cheerfully refunded by the person who may vend the same.

GEORGE ROGERS.

N. B. The above named medicine is secured to the subscriber by letters patent from the President of the United States, and prepared at his Dispensary in Northampton, county of Hampshire and state of Massachusetts.

To the Public.

The great benefit which I have experienced from Rogers's Vegetable, &c. and a firm persuasion that it may afford relief to others, induces me to make every laudable exertion for its distribution.

For five years preceding the last of Dec. 1807, in consequence of taking a violent cold I had been afflicted with the asthma, a disorder which I conceived to be hereditary, my father and grand father both having greatly suffered from it. The disorder increasing rapidly upon me, in the spring of 1807, I consulted Dr. C. L. Seeger, but the urgency of his business prevented him from attending at that time, particularly to my case. My business made it necessary for me to leave home and be absent the greater part of summer, which deprived me of the able professional assistance of Dr. Seeger. In September last, a severe cold brought on a violent cough and the disorder assumed an aspect more serious and alarming than at any former period—I was extremely debilitated, emaciated and reduced. Such was the irritability of my lungs I was obliged to use the greatest caution in the use of respiration. After a free use of Rogers's Vegetable, &c for about two months I was perfectly relieved of the dreadful cough which had so long afflicted me, and completely cured of every symptom of the asthma—In short, blessed be God, I have continued in sound health ever since. As these facts may be important to those unfortunate individuals who are suffering from the same disorder, I have been thus particular in their detail.—And I do not hesitate to declare my solemn conviction, both from my own experience and observing its effects on others, that Dr. Rogers's V. P. D is an easy, safe and effectual remedy for coughs and asthmas, and is the greatest antidote to all pulmonic complaints that the world has ever witnessed.—

Jacob W. Brewster.

Northampton, January, 1809.

THIS may certify, that about the first of October last, I was attacked with a violen cough, which proceeded, as was the opinion of my physician, who is a man well approved of in his profession, from a bruise which I received on my left side about a fortnight before. By use constantly I tried Rogers's Pulmonic Detergent—I was very weak and low and took but half the quantity prescribed by his directions. In three days I was much relieved, and in eight days quite cured of the cough.

Moses Parsons, jun.

Northampton, February, 1809.

Northampton, (Mass.) Feb. 1809.

I James Heaton, also hereby certify, that in the fall of the year 1808, I was seized with a severe cold attended by an obstinate and distressing cough. The violence of my cough soon produced a pain in my side and breast, and frequently spitting of blood, in short, all the horrid symptoms of a consumption were rapidly assailing me. In this situation I was recommended to Dr. George Rogers, who rendered me immediate relief by administering his Vegetable Deturgent. I have continued the use of it ever since, and for three months past, though not completely restored to health, I have been able constantly to attend to my business—and I fully believe that my partial restoration has been solely owing (under God) to this valuable medicine.

James Heaton.

To the Public.

In consequence of taking a severe cold in May 1808 I was seized with a violent pain in my side attended with a distressing cough, which, although I had the advice and prescriptions of a respectable physician lasted me four weeks, without any alevia tion. I then applied to Dr. George Rogers, who administered his Vegetable Polmonic Deturgent, which gave me immediate relief; and in ten days I was entirly freed from the pain in my side and cough.

Charles Chapman.

Northampton March 1809

I ELIJAH NORTON, jun of Westampton, in Massachusetts do certify that in the last year I was attended with a great debility, weakness of the lungs distressed for breath, and a violent cough, attended with a fever for a number of months; about the 15th of August I began the use of Dr. George Rogers's Vegetable Pulmonic Deturgent. I kept in the use of it about three months Immedia ely after taking this medicine my cough abated and I could breathe with more freedom. I would recommend the medicine from my own experience, to those who are troubled with a cough, and disorders of the lungs and breast, and consumptive complaints and do believe it to be a valuable and useful medicine.

THE first number of this valuable Work is just come to hand and is ready for inspection at the store of the subscriber, in King-street, and with Mr. Triplet, at the coffee-house.

Fully aware of the impositions that have been practised upon the public by strangers soliciting subscriptions from distant places; the Editors invite their examination of a Work perhaps the most useful, entertaining as well as extensive in its kind that has ever been undertaken in any country. And they flatter themselves that the American will by no means shrink from a comparison with the London edition, tho' offered at six dollars per Vol. less.

This number may be considered as a fair specimen of the execution of the work, and will be left a short time for examination, before the 2d number is put to press. After this the subscription will be raised to $2 25 each number; and but a few more copies printed than are sufficient to supply the subscribers, that the early patrons of this valuable Work may have a decided advantage—subsequent applications may therefore come too late.

It is also the intention of the Editor to annex to the last number a complete list of names of the subscribers as the patrons and encouragers of useful knowledge, the arts and literature of the United States.
